Section 11 & 13 gives guidance for determination of this application.

Subsections 11.16 to 11.28 highlights the elements of the Guidance that are most relevant with respect to this application. This is not exhaustive and guidance should be considered fully prior to making decisions with respect to applications.

8.0 Committee

Each application must be considered on its own merits and any conditions attached to licences and certificates must be tailored to the individual style and characteristics of the premises and events concerned. This is essential to avoid the imposition of disproportionate and overly burdensome conditions on premises where there is no need for such conditions. Standardised conditions should be avoided and indeed, may be unlawful where they cannot be shown to be necessary for the promotion of the licensing objectives in any individual case.

Please state the ground(s) for review (please read guidance note 1)

On behalf of the Chief Officer of Police Mr Simon Edens, I call for review of the Premises Licence for off-licence premises Nene Valley Stores on the grounds of preventing crime and disorder and public safety. This follows an incident at the store on the evening of 19th October 2017 involving a male working in the shop who was not the PLH or DPS, and a male member of the public and his associate which led to the member of the public being struck over the head with a length of wood by the shop worker.

At around 18.25hrs on 19th October the male victim and his associate went to Nene Valley Stores and at the service counter got into an altercation with the shopworker who appeared to be the only person working there. The male customer and his associate were ushered out of the shop by the shopworker and the shopworker followed them to the door and then outside where an altercation appears to continue. The shop worker then went back into the store and reached behind the counter and pulled out a hammer before returning outside where he is seen on CCTV to have a verbal exchange with the male customer and his associate across the street. The shop worker then returned to the store where he went behind counter and exchanged the hammer for a wooden baton. By this time the customer and his associate have come back across the road towards the shop doorway and there is a further exchange at the door with the shopworker who is then seen to strike out with the wooden baton hitting the male customer on the head causing a laceration to the males head.

With this the shopworker returned to the shop and called his boss and began to mop up the blood left by the victim from his head wound. The manager came to the store and offered to take the two males to hospital for treatment to the head injury . A local resident heard all the commotion and went out to investigate and before the shop manager arrived started to tend to the wound of the male and called the police. On arrival of the police they were able to locate the victim who had been dropped off at the Super Sausage car park further along the road by the shop manager and took him to hospital. Police also attended the store where the wooden baton, hammer and mop were seized and the shop worker was arrested.

The shop worker initially identified himself as MANOKARAN SUBRAMANIM but was later identified as CHANDRAKASAN CHANDRASEGARAN, a male known to the Immigration Services and with no right to work in this country. Currently this male is still under investigation by the police and immigration services and is residing in London.

This incident raises three clear issues of concern:

1. There appears to be no reason why, after what looks like a refused sale to two customers by the shop worker, potentially for good reason, that they were followed out of the store by the shopworker causing the altercation with them to escalate. This then resulted in the use of weapons causing a head injury to one of the males. This is a clear case of excessive force being used and potentially of the shopworker taking the law into his own hands. Although not the direct actions of the store manager or premises licence holder it begs the question as to what training and vetting of staff has taken place before they are left unsupervised to work there?
2. Why were such implements, a hammer and a wooden baton, being kept close to hand behind the counter of the store? They were very close to hand having been left just behind the counter within reach of the counter access from the shop floor.
3. It appears that the shop worker had been left in sole charge of the shop premises indicating he was employed in some capacity there. Why was this when he had no right to work in the UK and what checks had been done by the store management in that respect?

For this reason Northamptonshire Police do not believe the the Premise Licence Holder and DPS Kandarpa SARMA has upheld the Prevention of Crime & Disorder licensing objective nor that of public safety in terms the untrained and unvetted member of staff left in charge of his premises and the weapons that were to hand behind the service counter used during this incident. Also there were failures to carry out checks on the shop worker in terms of his right to work. Northamptonshire Police therefore ask that Northampton Borough Council Licensing Committee review the premises licence and consider all options terms of revocation, suspension or added conditions. Removal of the DPS is not a viable option given that the premises licence holder and DPS are one and the same.

Conditory
If they see fit to add new conditions to the licence the following would be acceptable to Northamptonshire Police as relevant, proportionate and necessary to the circumstances of this review and the licensing objectives:

1. All staff involved in the retail of alcohol will be trained in relation to the law regarding its sale. This training must be completed prior to them being authorised to sell alcohol and refreshed every 12 months as a minimum. A record of this training must be kept and maintained with a copy of the syllabus attached. The recipient of the training must sign to state that they have received and understood the training and this should be dated. Training records must be kept on the premises at all times and made available to an officer from a responsible authority upon reasonable request.
2. Records, including copies of all relevant documentation, pertaining to any and all employees identification and right to work in the shop must be retained by the premises for the duration of their employment and for at least 6 months after termination of that employment. Employment includes any person who performs any work linked to the general running of the store for payment or otherwise.

3. No implements such as hammers, knives, wooden sticks or bats or anything else that could be easily used as a weapon are to be kept behind the counter, on the shop floor or in the storage areas at the back of the shop whilst the premises is open to the public. Where tools need to be used for any repair in these areas they will be removed once the repairs are complete.

3. After 6pm and up closing time there must be more than one person working in the store at any one time.
