Please state the ground(s) for review (please read guidance note 1)

Northamptonshire County Council Trading Standards Service are seeking a review under the licensing objectives of 'The Prevention of Crime and Disorder', and 'The Protection of Children from Harm' on the grounds that the business has sold cigarettes to a person under the age of 18 and has sold counterfeit cigarettes, which did not carry the required written and pictorial warnings, evading Tobacco Duty.

Bakhtiyar HAMAD was prosecuted for offences committed in February and April 2013. They were for the sale at the above premises of counterfeit cigarettes which also did not bear the required warnings in words and pictures, and for a sale of cigarettes to a child under 18.

In September 2013 at Ja Ja General store illicit cigarettes were sold and then a quantity of cigarettes and hand-rolling tobacco were seized at the premises as smuggled goods without the required warnings and some were also found to be counterfeit.

Please provide as much information as possible to support the application
(please read guidance note 2)

Prevention of Crime and Disorder

Mr Bakhtiyar Ahmed HAMAD was prosecuted for the following offences:

1. On the 4th April 2013 at JaJa General Store, 51a Kettering Road, Northampton, you sold tobacco, namely a packet of 20 Mayfair Cigarettes to a person under the age of eighteen years, whose date of birth is 20th January 1998. Contrary to Section 7 (1) of the Children and Young Persons Act 1933 (as amended).
2. On 4th April 2013, at JaJa General Store, 51a Kettering Road, Northampton, with a view to gain for yourself or another and without the consent of the proprietor, you sold a packet of 20 cigarettes, the packaging of which bore the word "Mayfair" being a sign identical to, or likely to be mistaken for, a registered trade mark of Gallaher Ltd. Contrary to Section 92(1)(b) of the Trade Marks Act 1994
3. On 6th February 2013 at JaJa General Store, 51a Kettering Road, Northampton you supplied 10 packets of cigarettes that were not labelled with the warnings required by Regulation 7(1) of The Tobacco Products (Manufacture, Presentation and Sale) (Safety) Regulations 2002 as amended. Contrary to Regulation 14(1) of the aforesaid Regulations and Section 12 of the Consumer Protection Act 1987.

On 4th November 2013 Mr HAMAD pleaded guilty to each charge in the magistrates' court and was fined £190 per offence = £570, plus a Victim Surcharge of £20 and full costs of £1427.12 totalling £2017.12

In September this Service used an authorised test purchaser to purchase a pack of 20 Marlboro Gold cigarettes which were found to be illicit. On 13th September 2013 a warrant was executed at the premises where in the shop and the flat above a quantity of 2050 packets of cigarettes and hand-rolling tobacco was seized. 195 packets of which have been confirmed to be counterfeit copies of trade marked brands. At the time Mr HAMAD was not present and the person in charge on the day was Mr Said Faze AHMED. Mr AHMED said he was not the owner and Mr HAMAD was, but he did not know where he was or how to contact him

At court on 4th November 2013, under oath, Mr HAMAD said that he had sold the business and had not been in charge since 31st May 2013. The current Premises Licence for JA JA General Store details Mr HAMAD as the Premises Licence Holder and the Designated Premises Supervisor. This means that currently and for over five months no person has taken over the role of premises Licence Holder and Designated Premises Supervisor. Therefore no person has taken day to day responsibility for the sale of alcohol. Mr Hamad stated at the hearing that he would surrender his personal licence and premises licence to NBC as he is no longer connected to the business.

Under the Licensing Act 2003 section 144 there is an offence for the keeping of smuggled goods

(1) A person [*] commits an offence if he knowingly keeps or allows to be kept, on any relevant premises, any goods which have been imported without payment of duty or which have otherwise been unlawfully imported.

* this includes any person working at the business whether paid or unpaid, who has authority to prevent the storage of such goods, the Designated Premises Supervisor and the Premises Licence Holder.

In the Amended Guidance Issued Under Section 182 Of The Licensing Act 2003 issued by the Home Secretary it states:

11.26 There is certain criminal activity that may arise in connection with licensed premises, which the Secretary of State considers should be treated particularly seriously. These are the use of the licensed premises:

- [...]
- for the purchase and consumption of alcohol by minors which impacts on the health, educational attainment, employment prospects and propensity for crime of young people;
- [...] and
- for the sale of smuggled tobacco and alcohol.

11.27 It is envisaged that licensing authorities, the police and other law enforcement agencies, which are responsible authorities, will use the review procedures effectively to deter such activities and crime. Where reviews arise and the licensing authority determines that the crime prevention objective is being undermined through the premises being used to further crimes, it is expected that revocation of the licence – even in the first instance – should be seriously considered.

As a result of the incidents and the subsequent investigations Northamptonshire County Council Trading Standards Service considers that there are serious concerns about the proper operation of the business, and therefore asks for the Premises Licence to be revoked.
