3. HATE CRIME AWARENESS WEEK

YH-As part of my role, I organise different hate crime events around Northamptonshire. I'll run through the events we have planned for the "Hate Crime Week of Action" so far. If you have any more questions please let me know.

On Monday we launch event in Corby-this will be happening in one of the primary schools. Information will be sent out this week regarding which school and speakers will be there.

Tuesday we will be doing a head teacher event at Campbell square. This will help the schools identity hate crimes and better understand how to deal with them.

Wednesday we will have the Primary School Safety Event at the Deco Theatre, where there will be a hate crime workshop for the children

Thursday we have the chief supper

Friday we are working with "Get on-board". They are running a conference around hate crime with workshops on the day

SR-On Monday NPH will have a stall at Weston Favell and on Friday we will have the NPH bus on the Market Square. On Tuesday we will be heading to the travellers encampment at in Northampton to discuss hate crime issues with them.

YH-The national figures for the traveller's community is that the number of reports are low but the actual hate crime incidents are very high. We are looking to change that through working with that community more.

JR-I would like to say all of this sounds excellent. It's good to see that you will be looking to engage with the traveller's community.

PW-Have you got anyone attending these events from restorative justice.

YH-We don't actually, do you have any contacts to share?

ACTION PW to share contacts to JW to forward to YH and SR*

4. DV AND EVE SUPPORT

PW-In the women's forum, issues were raised around domestic violence in the county. Unfortunately the support services haven't been able to provide the support needed to the public. There was a case study raised along with some of the issues. EVE attended the women's forum and the suggestion was that Pindy liaise with EVE to work closely on that case. By working together they could highlight issues and concerns with gaps in support services. It was also suggested that the forum members who raised the issues, pull out old paper work and documents around these issue to help identify reoccurring issues and recap what suggestions were made at the time to deal with these issues.

PC-I contact EVE regarding some of these issues. There main concern from them is that there understaffed to provide the support needed and they are overwhelmed with the number of people coming in.

PW- It's sad to here that EVE are so overloaded that they are struggling to provide support to those who need it. We will bring this back to the women's forum as EVE will be there.

PW- Can we find out if the scrutiny panel have a list of services across the county that we could use to provide support to eve.

ACTION-JW to invite someone from the police who provides DV support (Domestic violence) to find out how they support and what services are available.

MW-Community law are in a difficult situation as they have received a huge funding cut, which intern is having an effect on services like this. Community law is also very understaffed

5. COMMUNITY NEWS EXCHANGE

PW-Bellinge has their community AMG on the 28th of October if anyone would like to attend.

MW-Lowdown have a AGM on the 26th September. The Diwali light event will once again be happening in Northampton on the 19th October. Black history month has many events going on across the town. There is also a play I would like to recommend called Two Trains Running, in relation to black history month. It's a great play not just about race but also about broken community's. Lots going on across the town plus tours happening here at the Guildhall.

Code of Conduct for the Forums

This Code of Conduct sets out the standards that the Forums expect of its members. It aims to provide members with an effective ethical framework in which to do business. It is not intended to be exhaustive, or to cover every eventuality, but sets out some common sense requirements to enable the forums to function smoothly and successfully.

It is the responsibility of the Chair to encourage and enable input from forum members, to ensure all voices are heard.

1. Meeting Etiquette

As an attendee you must comply with the following requirements and any others that may be stated from time to time:

- 1.1 Contribute positively to discussions concerning the issues of the meeting
- 1.2 Be friendly, polite, courteous and respectful at all times to fellow members, and others present
- 1.3 Not insult, abuse or use offensive language or behaviour
- 1.4 Comply with Northampton Borough Councils Equal Opportunities Policy
- 1.5 Demonstrate actively that you are interested in and care about the issue that you are discussing and want to make a positive difference
- 1.6 Show respect for buildings, facilities and equipment being used
- 1.7 Speak only through the Chairman of the meeting and not interrupt, heckle, make distracting noises or gestures
- 1.8 Speak clearly into any microphone provided and comply with any instructions given about its use

2. Being Objective

- 2.1 Your own experience and views should inform, but not dominate or dictate how you participate.
- 2.2 If you have a specific issue with regards to a service matter to raise these can be discussed with a member of staff at the end of the each meeting or you can ask for the appropriate officer details. Meetings attended by other residents are not the place to raise any issues of this nature.
- 2.3 Be Fair
- 2.4 You must have and show respect for the people you deal with, and take their circumstances and personal differences into account. This is about putting equality into practice. The key is simply to respect differences fairly, so that you do not exclude anyone, or treat anyone inappropriately or unfairly because of their particular circumstances.

Breaching the Code of Conduct

If any person's behaviour breaches this Code of Conduct, they will be required to leave the meeting and vacate the premises where it is being held. They will not be permitted to attend future meetings unless they provide satisfactory evidence to Northampton Borough Council that they will comply with the Code – e.g. a letter of apology.
